To Queen Victoria & Empress, Balmoral, Scotland.

Your Majesty's expression of sympathy for the suffering by earthquake is warmly appreciated, and conveys a grateful response in American hearts.

GOVERNOR CLEVELAND, President.

A dugout has been found near the foot of Lake Pennesewassee, and is supposed by some to have been the first boat ever used by white men in that country. It was created by Joseph Stevens, James Stover, Nehemiah Hobbs, and George Lessley in 1786. It was found Aug. 26th by John Hatch, Lee Watson, and Charles Craygan, and will be in the process of removal at New Haven.

For several days part have been seen hunting on Parsons Creek, Washington county, Kansas, for four persons known to be a wild tribe of Indians. They were a man, a girl aged about 15, and a child. Friday the search ended in the capture of the entire family. The man, woman and girl have black hair on their faces and the man much hair on his body. The color of the faces of all was ashy gray. They cannot talk, but can understand English. The girl, whom the giri appears to understand, 2d Gen. opinion prevails that they were scalped by the Indians years ago, and, becoming insane, have wandered in the woods ever since.

The Raymonds & Winters have returned to the Pacific Coast have enabled hundreds of eastern people to escape the rigorous climate of the East and enjoy seasons of rest and recreation in the most favored land of the whole globe. A glance at the comprehensive pamphlet circular just issued by this enterprising firm shows that the advantages of the West are far more numerous than anything yet offered. There are to be seen extensive westward and mid-latitude returning, with special trains and other special sight-seeing facilities through the wild scenery of the Rocky Mountains.

The dates of the various excursions are November 4, December 9, January 6 and 30, February 3 and 17, March 10, 16, and 20, to Weymouth, 26th Washington street, opposite School street, Boston, for circulars describing The Raymond, and giving details of these trips.

The New England Exhibition has come and gone, and next Monday the State Society will open their gates at Lewiston, to receive the visitors from the manufactured fairs.

The show of horses and stock will be limited by the number of stalls and when the main exhibition building will be open, the stockmen to display the fruits, flowers and manufactured goods.

No space will be given to anything objectionable, and as the entire exhibit will be made on the grounds, one admission will cover the whole. The field of trotting and racing will be open every before, and those that fought the battle at Bangor last week, will meet again, with many others from the western portion of the State, on the track next week to contest for the purse. The improvements on the track buildings have been made with a view to increasing the width of the public, and in return the grounds should be dredged daily. With pleasant weather the coming exhibition is to be the best ever held.
